CONDITIONS OF USE OF U of O MARKS

1. General Conditions

Each particular use of the U of O Marks by CCB, and each use of any likeness of the physical appearance of any part of the Campus (whether by photograph, drawing or any other form of reproduction), shall be subject to the express prior written approval of U of O. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the parties specifically agree as follows:

- (a) CCB shall undertake whatever measures are necessary so as to ensure that the U of O Marks are used only in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement;
- (b) CCB shall not, without the prior written approval of U of O, have any trade mark, trade name, emblem, logos, service marks or other marks denoting or identifying any third party or any third party's product or service affixed to or as part of (i) those Cold Beverage Products which display the U of O Marks on their packaging, or (ii) any advertising or promotional materials which display the U of O Marks;
- (c) CCB shall not use or permit any of the U of O Marks to be used or exploited in any manner contrary to public morals or which is considered deceptive or misleading or reflects unfavourably upon the good name, goodwill, reputation and image of U of O, nor in any manner which is contrary to applicable laws;
- (d) all uses of the U of O Marks by CCB shall faithfully and accurately reproduce the colour, design and appearance without embellishment as shown in the then current Graphic Standards. No partial version of any of the U of O Marks or fragment thereof, or any likeness of any part of the Campus, may be used at any time for any purpose without the express prior written consent of U of O;

- (e) all uses of the U of O Marks shall comply with applicable laws and regulations and shall indicate appropriate intellectual property notices of protection within Canada as set out in the Graphic Standards, or in such other form as approved or directed in writing by U of O. Such notices shall not be used with any U of O Mark to which they do not apply;
- (f) CCB shall use the U of O Marks in such manner as to protect and preserve all of U of O's respective rights in Canada and elsewhere;
- (g) CCB shall not adopt or use in Canada or elsewhere, any trade mark, trade name, logo, service mark, insignia, emblem, symbol or mark which contains or is confusingly similar to or a simulation or colourable imitation of the U of O Marks or a likeness of the physical appearance of any part of the Campus, which commitment shall continue, notwithstanding expiration or termination of this Agreement; and
- (h) CCB shall not use any of the U of O Marks as part of a trade, business or corporate name nor style to be used by it.

2. Reservation of Rights

CCB acknowledges and agrees that it has no right, title or interest in the U of O Marks except the use of the same as herein set out and that nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as an assignment or grant to either of them of any right, title or interest in or to any of the U of O Marks or in any copyright, trade mark, trade name or official mark, industrial design or other intellectual property of U of O and that it shall not take any action to the detriment of U of O's right or interest in any of the aforesaid, either during the term of this Agreement or thereafter.

3. Assignment of Rights

CCB agrees that should any right, title or interest in or to any of the U of O Marks, or in any goodwill created or arising in connection with the use of any of the U of O

Marks, or in any copyright, trade mark, trade name, official mark, industrial design or other property of U of O become vested in it, or in any other person employed by or associated with it (by operation of law or otherwise), it shall hold the same in trust for U of O, and they shall pass, and they are hereby irrevocably and unconditionally assigned, to U of O. Should CCB, with or without the prior written consent of U of O, create and make use of the U of O Marks in a configuration, other than as provided for in, or permitted by this Agreement, then CCB agrees that all rights in any new version, translation or arrangement of the U of O Marks or other change in such marks, created or used by or on behalf of CCB, shall be and shall remain the exclusive property of U of O (whether or not the same are registerable as a trade mark or official mark, copyright or industrial design), and the provisions of this Agreement shall apply to same mutatis mutandis as they do to the U of O Marks.
